Carers Count to run two Sanctuary Days in Kirklees

Thanks to a grant from the One Community Foundation, Carers Count Kirklees will be running two Sanctuary Days in April next year.

In Kirklees, 56,000 adults provide unpaid care for a loved one. Many face tough emotional challenges because of their caring responsibilities. Most carers say they feel isolated, with 81% feeling cut off socially and over half admitting to feelings of loneliness.

The Sanctuary Days will bring carers together and give them the essential break they need to care for themselves. It will be two full-day events, with relaxing activities such as meditation, arts and crafts, gentle movement and a social lunch.

Carers will have the chance to spend time with others who truly understand what they are going through and the Carers Count Kirklees team will be on hand for one-to-one support for those who need it.

It's all happening at the beautiful Oakwell Hall Barn, a perfect place to relax and recharge. The full-day event includes return travel to the venue, lunch and refreshments throughout the day.

Look out for further details on how you can join us and book into this event!

We would like to thank One Community Foundation for their support, which makes the Sanctuary Days possible.

Martha Mills was a 13-year-old girl who fell off her bike whilst on holiday in Wales. Martha's abdomen took the full brunt of the fall.

Her family raised their concerns with the medical and nursing staff at the hospital on several occasions and were "reassured" by professionals. The family recognised Martha was becoming more poorly and expressed their worries. Martha was moved to Great Ormond Street Hospital and the following day she sadly died.

Martha's Rule has been introduced in hospitals across England and gives patients, families and carers the right to request a review if they are worried that they or their loved one's condition is getting worse and their concerns are not being responded to.

At Calderdale and Huddersfield NHS Foundation Trust we are encouraging people to:

1. Recognise - Watch for any signs of deterioration or changes in your condition, which have not been addressed by a clinician

2. Escalate - Discuss your concerns with the nurse or doctor in charge of their care. If the condition of the patient you are visiting is rapidly worsening and you feel you are not being listened to you can refer to Martha's Rule

3. Refer to Martha's rule - If your concerns are not addressed and there is a deterioration in the patient's condition whilst they are in hospital, you can refer to Martha's Rule by calling the Martha's Rule telephone number: Huddersfield 07350 439 603 Calderdale Team 07350 439 623. The Acute Response Team will assess the call and aim to respond within 4 hours. If you feel it is an urgent deterioration, please escalate to the nurse in charge and doctors on the ward immediately.

Our Hospital Liaison Service Two Years On

It's hard to believe it has been two years since Shazia Bi, Louise Spencer, and Allana Foulds started their roles as Carers Hospital Liaison Workers for Carers Count Kirklees and Calderdale. This service forms part of Carers Count's Telephone Information and Support Service for unpaid carers whose loved one is in hospital or has recently been discharged. Our local NHS Trusts support unpaid carers to connect with Carers Count as part of their commitment to carer support.

You may have met our team at the monthly stalls in the main reception areas at Huddersfield Royal Infirmary and Calderdale Royal Hospital on the first Wednesday of each month. We also host a stall at Dewsbury District Hospital on the third Wednesday of each month.

Carers referred to our Hospital Liaison Workers receive a quick check-in phone call to ensure they are informed about their rights, available services, and the resources that can support them during and after their loved one's hospital stay.

Many carers have told us how valuable these calls are—whether to learn about support available or simply to have someone to talk through their caring situation with.

"It's useful to have the carer service to talk to when your loved one is in hospital. I had so many questions; it felt overwhelming. I learned who I needed to ask in the hospital to get answers to my questions. I was informed about support for unpaid carers, including receiving a copy of the Calderdale and Kirklees Carers Charter and a carers lanyard."

"It was really helpful to hear about all the different support services that are out there for me to access."

"I think of myself as someone good at searching things out, but lots of service names sound the same—it's confusing. It's been great to have a conversation following hospital discharge to get a better understanding of what is available."

"I don't like to bother my loved one as they are poorly. It's good to know that the carers' hospital liaison staff are there to listen. It's made things feel less overwhelming."

"Having help to write a well-thought-out Plan B/contingency plan has been a big relief to me as my loved one's main carer. I worried about what would happen if I became unwell. Having all their care needs written in one place has given me peace of mind. I might never need to use it, but I'm glad it's done."

"I never thought my loved one would qualify for any benefits, but after having the HD call I was encouraged to get a full benefit check. It turned out that my dad did qualify, and it's made such a difference to his quality of life."

Allana, Shazia, and Louise are here if you need support when a loved one is in hospital or has recently been discharged. Please don't hesitate to call us.

New Initiative Launches to Give West Yorkshire's Unpaid Carers a Well-Deserved Break.

The Caring Kind Project, managed by Carers Leeds — an organisation with over 30 years' experience supporting unpaid carers — offers carers the chance to take a well-deserved break, with experiences generously gifted by businesses from the hospitality, leisure, tourism, and culture sectors across the region.

Unpaid carers are family members, friends, and neighbours who look after someone due to illness, disability, or age - providing an essential service to the UK. Their care is estimated to save the economy £162 billion annually, and yet, 4 in 10 unpaid carers live in poverty. In West Yorkshire, there are 400,000 known unpaid carers, and many report burnout, isolation, and mental and physical exhaustion.

"Burnout is a real and profound issue for unpaid carers," says Claire Turner, Chief Executive of Carers Leeds. "We know that caring can have a negative impact on carers health and wellbeing and that carers often put their own needs second to the person they are caring for. Being able to take a break from caring is so important, and this project aims to help carers do just that."

The Caring Kind Project is building a community of local businesses — from hotels to hairdressers, cafés to cultural venues — whose generosity directly improves the well-being of unpaid carers.

Whether it's a weekend away or just coffee and cake with a friend, The Caring Kind Project gives them the confidence to step away, to catch their breath, and return to their responsibilities with renewed energy and a fresh perspective.

Local Giving. Local Impact.

Businesses are invited to join the project as Giving Partners, donating breaks, experiences, or services. For those outside the hospitality sector, there's also the option to fund a break, helping to purchase breaks and experiences from independent, local businesses that want to support but simply can't.

"There are few charitable causes where the support is so direct," says Gemma Povey, Project Manager. "Giving Partners see the benefit of their gift on the faces of the people in front of them — it's so personal. We really are building a caring community."

Giving unpaid carers a well-deserved break.

Unpaid carers are family members, friends, and neighbours who care for loved ones, without pay and all too often without recognition.

We give them something simple, yet so meaningful — a break.

Dementia UK – Partnership with Nationwide

Nationwide has partnered with Dementia UK, as part of their Nationwide Fairer Futures programme, to run dementia clinics across 200 of their branches — including the Huddersfield Kirkgate branch!

The Nationwide Fairer Futures programme aims to help people affected by dementia, and their families, gain better access to vital services. Over the next three years, the partnership hopes to support at least 100,000 people living with dementia and their carers through specialist care and expert guidance.

If you care for someone who has dementia, or if you live with the diagnosis yourself, you can book a 45-minute face-to-face appointment with a dementia specialist Admiral Nurse. They will offer tailored support and expert advice. All appointments are confidential and take place in a private space within the branch.

How they can support you:

- understanding the diagnosis and how the condition progresses
- practical tips for caring for someone who lives with dementia
- adapting to and coping with changes in behaviour
- financial and legal issues, visit dementiauk.org/information-and-support/financial-and-legal-support
- transitions in care, including moving into residential care, visit dementiauk.org/information-and-support/specialist-diagnosis-and-support/considering-a-care-home-for-a-person-with-dementia
- emotional support, including anticipatory grief, bereavement and loss, visit dementiauk.org/information-and-support/looking-after-yourself-as-a-carer/grief-bereavement-and-loss

How to book an appointment

The next available appointments are on 13th January at Nationwide, 2 Kirkgate, Huddersfield.

Appointments are also available in Halifax.

Nationwide releases new appointment slots on the first Friday of every month, so please check their website if you can't see a session near you.

dementiauk.org/information-and-support/how-we-can-support-you/admiral-nurse-clinics/nationwide/#locations

Please note that appointments can only be booked up to one month in advance.

If you are unable to book online, you can send a text message with the word APPOINTMENT to 07478 724000, and a member of the Nationwide team will call you to help you make a booking.

If you have any questions about the clinics, please contact nationwide@dementiauk.org.

For immediate support, contact Dementia UK's Helpline on 0800 888 6678.

The Carers Count team has been out volunteering again!

Members of the Carers Count team recently volunteered at Safe Anchor Trust in Mirfield. We work alongside Safe Anchor Trust to run our canal boat trips, and this was a great opportunity to give something back.

We had a fantastic time. Together we:

- Planted 400 daffodils and numerous bluebells.
- Planted bulbs in the Marina and cut back overgrown vegetation.
- Teams on the boat collected litter and other larger items.
- We cleared seven bags of litter from Shepley Marina to Calder Road Bridge.
- From Greenwood flood gate to next access path to canal, we collected 22 bags of litter, and the Council took them away.
- We cut back vegetation back which was obstructing people using the pavement.
- Also collected 9 bags of good soil.

If you would like to contact Safe Anchor to find out more about what they do or how you can help, use the contact us page on their website:

Nationwide – Better Off Indicator

Nationwide has launched a free phone line to assist UK residents in claiming benefits they are entitled to. The service is available to everyone and not just Nationwide customers. The service includes a benefit calculator, and support is available for those who would like extra help applying digitally.

Many people believe benefits are only for those who can't work — but that's not the case. Every year, around £23 billion in benefits go unclaimed in the UK simply because people don't realise, they may be eligible.

You could be entitled to support if you or your household:

- Are out of work
- Rent your home
- Have children
- Have a disability or care for someone who does
- Receive the State Pension

To find out what you might be able to claim, try our Better Off Indicator. It only takes a few minutes and could help make a real difference with the cost of living.

If the tool suggests you're eligible, you can complete a full benefits calculation and start your application.

Prefer to speak to someone?

If your results show you may be entitled to support and you'd like help with the full calculation, you can call Policy in Practice to speak to a benefits specialist on 0300 373 0619.

Before calling, please have details ready about:

- Your income (wages, pensions, benefits, tax credits)
- Your partner's income, if applicable
- Savings or investments
- Rent or mortgage payments
- Annual Council Tax and any discounts
- Information about other adults living in your home
- Whether anyone receives Carer's Allowance for you or someone else you live with Having this information at hand will help identify exactly what support you may be entitled to.

Find out if you could get benefits or money to help you

Have you checked if you could get benefits or money to help you?

A report says that £23 billion of benefits in the UK are not claimed every year.

Some people could get hundreds of pounds every month in benefits and money to help them.

We want to help people to find out if they could get benefits or money to help them.

You can find out if you could get benefits or money to help you online or by phone.
